Adventure's in Gardening

Adventure's in Gardening by Evan Kramer

The Curry County Fair opens next Thursday, July 28, for a four day run at the Fairgrounds in Gold Beach. Meanwhile, the Fair staff and volunteers work furiously getting the place ready for next week's fun.

One of the most popular features of this, and the other county fairs in Oregon, are the floral and horticultural displays. Viola Cuatt is the Fair Board member who supervises the Fair's horticulture building. Here, in addition to many beautiful flowers, fairgoers will have a chance to see some truly impressive cabbages, strawberries, cucumbers, blueberries, etc. The theme of this year's Fair is "Cheers To Another 60 Years".

I wasn't getting ready to display something at the floral building, but I did spend some time in my small garden tying up my grape vines and planting several more herb plants. I had planted several tomato and bell pepper plants in late May but after coming back from Cleveland saw that all I'd done is provide nourishment to the slugs. I put some more chili pepper plants in a couple of weeks ago and have been feeding the slugs cheap beer (works wonders).

This past Sunday I loaded Myrtle the dog in the back of the truck and drove up Elk River to see what a few other amateur gardeners were doing. First we went to the Fish Hatchery and walked along parts of the river not accessible except in low waters. The fish ladder at the Hatchery showed the river at 2.9'.

Then we drove over to Rick and Tammy Fanning's house on the other side of Elk River Road for a visit and to see what was growing in their yard. Tammy showed me a strawberry plant I'd never heard of called an alpine strawberry. They're small but tasty. Tammy pointed out an unusual plant called the shell flower. This is not a good plant for people who work during the day. The flowers on this plant last one day and only during daylight. When she showed me their main garden area the first thing I thought of was wait until the deer see this but Tammy said the deer aren't partial toward the nightshade plants — in this case tomatoes and potatoes. She also was trying some gallon milk jugs filled with water around the garden area as a deer deterrent. Myrtle made herself at home and jumped in Ruby and Rye's wading pool and got her teeth delicately around one of their water balloons before chomping down too hard and bursting it.

Less than a half mile upriver from the Fannings live Tammy's parents Paul and Pat Lee. We've had quite a few colorful gladiolas in our store for the last couple weeks which have come from the Lee's garden. So I wanted to stop and see Paul and Pat and how their garden looked. They finally have enough time to give their garden the attention it needs after years running a gas station in town and then the well loved Silver Door restaurant. There were numerous gladiolas in bloom though Paul told me they didn't enjoy the heat (it was around 90). They had quite a few Lilly plants but none showing flowers. However, there is a nice display of them that Pat gave to the Post Office.

I was curious what kind of predators helped themselves to the Lee's bountiful garden. They have a couple of raised beds with strawberries in them with netting to keep the birds out and plywood at night to keep the raccoons from raiding the berries. Despite having a tall fence around the garden they've had deer jump in and sample the edibles. A few years ago a bear tore a hole in their fence and helped himself to the pears and peaches in their orchard. Needless to say the bear did some serious damage to the trees which are still recovering today. To think I've only had to contend with slugs and aggressive blue jays.

In Memory of David Bradley Nolan Jr.

The friends of David Nolan Jr. are honoring his memory with a get together at Pitch's Tavern this Sunday, July 24, at 2:00pm. There will be a potluck and live music.

Nolan was shot in the head and killed last Wednesday night at a home on Jackson Street in Port Orford.

Commission on Children and Families

The Commission on Children and Families is pleased to announce the Board of County Commissioners approval of the Curry County Children and Families Comprehensive Plan draft for the biennium 1995-97. The Comprehensive Plan draft will now be forwarded to the State Commission on Children and Families for final approval.

The Comprehensive Plan was written after extensive community mapping through interviews, surveys, and community forums. The plan includes recognition of the many resources within the county, including a strong perinatal program administered through the Public Health Department, prevention programs targeting school age children administered by public and private providers, and strong, local volunteer support for children's issues.

The eleven Benchmarks for People were prioritized in the Comprehensive Plan and directions, tools and potential partners were identified as Curry County Commission on Children and Families begin to plan program strategies for the 1995-97 biennium.

Anyone interested in finding out more about the 1995-97 Comprehensive Plan or how they might become involved in Children and Families issues is encouraged to come into the Children and Families Commission Office, located on the lower level of the Courthouse, or to attend a Commission meeting which are scheduled for the second Tuesday of each month at 3:00pm in the Blue Room of the County Annex.

Dear Friends,

Pat Masterson's love for the richness and diversity of the Port Orford area prompted his lifetime mission to record, with photos and words, its history.

The long awaited publication of Pat's manuscript and expansive collection of historical photos is the result of his many years of dedication, effort and enthusiasm for this project.

Whether you've lived with the history of Port Orford all your life, as Pat and I have, or you're a newcomer and anxious to learn, this valuable book will be an important addition to your bookshelf.

Pat grew up on the Hughes Ranch on Cape Blanco Road, and I had the pleasure of being his third grade teacher at Port Orford. Even though he was a good student, I never dreamed he would become a teacher and author. As a little boy on his way to school, he would happily go out of his way to romp through mud puddles.

A week before his untimely death, Pat expressed to me his wish to be here for the autograph signing party. I'm certain he'll be with us in spirit as we celebrate the telling of the story of Port Orford. I know you'll enjoy walking through the pages of the book with Pat, and enjoy splashing as you go along.

Can You Explain These?

26. Two men, one big and burly and the other short and thin, enter a bar. They both order identical drinks. The big one gulps his down and leaves; the other sips his slowly, then dies.

101. A boy and his father are injured in a car accident. Both are taken to a hospital. The father dies at arrival, but the boy lives and is taken to surgery. A grey-haired, bespectacled surgeon looks at the boy and says, "I cannot operate on this boy — he's my son."

101. The surgeon is the boy's mother.

26. The drinks contained poisoned ice cubes; the man who drank slowly gave them time to melt, while the other didn't. Alternative explanation: The fast drinker left before a psycho arrived and shot up the bar.

Broccoli Fights Fungus

Scientists at the University of California have found a new use for broccoli. The vegetable that is so good for people is also good for their gardens. When dried and ground into a powder, broccoli works as a natural pesticide against fungus that attacks strawberries and other garden crops. I wonder if gardens hate it as much as I do?

Zoo Doo For Sale

The National Zoo in Washington, DC must handle four tons of animal waste each day. Part of their solution: mix in wood chips and straw, then stir to produce a rich compost and wait for gardeners to come and get it.

Pachyderm doo-doo is now a big seller at many zoos. You can order by mail from Zoo Doo, 281 E. Parkway Memphis, TN 38112, or call 1-800-I-LUV-DOO. This is a good example of "The Bandini Principle" — you can sell a-t if you market it right!

Ten Hidden Hazards

The Coalition for Consumer Health and Safety has named the top ten hidden hazards. They are: rollover crashes in sport & utility vehicles, failure to use seat belts, not wearing a helmet while bicycling, infant drownings in 5 gallon water buckets, baby walker injuries, improperly cooked foods, falls from playground equipment, excessive drinking, STD's, and secondhand tobacco smoke.

Baseball Tournament

The Coast League Indian All-Stars traveled to Winston for a double elimination baseball tournament lasting from July 15-18. The first game against Umpqua Valley Americans got off to a slow start with a score of 0-0 the first inning. Stephan Baudry started the Indians off in the second inning with a well hit ball that resulted in a home run. Danny Culley also scored by stealing 2 bases and eventually being hit in. That ended the 2nd inning with a score of 2-3. With the 2 lead batters (Kean Fleming & Stephan Baudry) of the 3rd inning getting on base, the Umpqua pitcher proceeded to walk the next 3 batters (Danny Culley, Lane Neeley & Jason Miles). With the bases loaded, Ryan Gehrke hit the ball to the fence, bringing in 3 runs to tie the game. Jason Keeler put the Indians up by 1 when he batted in Gehrke ending the inning with a score of 8-7.

In the 4th inning, Garrett Hoyl relieved pitcher Baudry and Justin Eichelburger entered the game to play 3rd base. David Compton made an unassisted out at 1st base and Chad Creighton has a screaming hit to right field in the 5th inning but the score remained 8-7.

At the top of the 6th inning, South Umpqua scored 1 run, tying the game. The heat was intense, but the Indians persevered and the winning run was walked onto base. The Coast League fans were out of their seats, holding their breath, as Tim Dougherty stole 2 bases despite South Umpqua's efforts to stop him. An RBI by Stephan Baudry brought in the winning run and ended the game at 9-8 in the Indian's favor.

The win moved the Indians into the winner's bracket, pitting them against Eugene's #1 team, the Eugene Nationals. Due to a last minute scheduling change, many Indian fans missed this game which ended in a 12-2 loss.

The Indians drew the Gold Beach All-Stars for their 3rd game. The Gold Beach pitcher held the Indians to no runs for the first 5 innings. In the 6th inning, the Indians had a 5 run rally but were eliminated from the tournament with an 8-5 loss. Casey Marsh (Indian catcher who was injured before the tournament started) was also present to cheer his teammates on.

Team members were housed by host families in the Winston/Roseburg area for the tournament and reported that they had a good time.

Freddy The Friendly Basset Hound By Delaine Kennedy

Freddy Grant, a basset hound, of undetermined (but definitely old) age, went to his reward last Thursday.

He was owned by Dohrman Grant, long-time Port Orford resident.

Freddy was well-known in town because he liked to visit and on any given day could be seen roaming town. Everyone knew where he belonged.

A couple of years ago Freddy and his master were featured in a World newspaper article.

There was a grand funeral for the deceased on Thursday evening. He was buried with prayers and a few tears. Several adults and children from the neighborhood attended. A cross and flowers decorate his final resting place.

Re-Installing DOS

Several people have reported problems re-installing DOS onto their computers. Since the introduction of DOS 5.0, Microsoft has sold DOS as an “Upgrade” rather than as an OEM (Original Equipment Manufacturer) product. The new “Upgrade” versions assume that DOS is already installed on the computer. If it isn't, their install program won't work properly and DOS can't be installed.

The solution is simple. Install any version of DOS for which you have bootable floppy disks, then install the upgrade.

Some DOS commands you may want to read about include: FDISK, FORMAT, SYS, MD (or MKDIR) and COPY or XCOPY. Be sure you understand what you're doing so you don't lose your data!
