Serving Port Orford since 1990

Pub Crawling By Valerie Kramer

Day 12 (Aug. 26) - Edinburgh (Airth)
- York - Bradford

We travel south past ruined Jedburgh Abbey into England through the spectacular Northumberland National Park. Then to the walled city of York where we visit the magnificent Minster and stroll around medieval shopping streets including the "shambles." Before heading to our hotel in Bradford, we will enjoy traditional Yorkshire hospitality at a country pub for dinner tonight. (FB D)

We got an early start this morning and left Edinburgh heading south. We stopped in Jedburgh for a last chance to buy from a couple of woolen mills' factory outlet stores. Across the street was an interesting business - Oregon Timber Frame Homes!

Our next stop was in the Cheviot Hills at a famous stone marking the border. It has "England" painted on one side and "Scotland" on the other. Many, many photos are taken of people standing by this large rock. Standing here you can see for miles over large grassy hills spotted with those white fluffy moving rocks (sheep.)

Just out of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne, the bus stopped for a very brief view and photo opportunity of the remains of Hadrian's wall which was built in 122AD. The remnants were just beyond a thick hedge beside the narrow country lane. Not a very impressive site unless you know its history. The Roman Emperor, Hadrian, had the wall constructed to mark the northern boundary of Roman Britain and to "separate the Romans from the barbarians." The wall was about 13 feet high and about 6.5 feet wide and ran for about 80 miles from the east coast of Britain to the west. "Milecastles" (gates) were located about every mile. They provided passage thru the wall and housed the Roman soldiers who also built the wall.

We stopped at a motorway rest stop for lunch. These places are more than the toilet/picnic/pet-area that you see along I5 in Oregon and are more like the Turnpike Plazas found in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan. They include a gift shop, fast food vendor, gas station, etc. Though the hurried motorist pays a premium for the convenience. This rest stop included a Burger King. A wopper, fries, and drink special (go large) was £5.05 or almost $8 American.

As we passed Durham, our guide explained that the lyrics to Roger Whittaker's song about Durham Town contains an error. He put the town on the river Tyne when, in fact, its on the river Weir. Poetic license, I guess.

In another literary information session we were told that Herriot's books about his veterinary exploits are set in the fictional town of Dorribe (sp?) which is, in reality, the town of Thurst.

One of our main stops for the day was in the walled city of York where we visited the Minster (cathedral) which dates back to 1291. The cathedral was suitably impressive but a bit of drizzle and my sore back somewhat dampened our enthusiasm.

We spent more time exploring the narrow, rambling, cobblestone streets full of stores and a large courtyard filled with a flea market. By this time our suitcases were overflowing with clothing, souvenirs, and dirty laundry. We managed to buy two nice carry-on bags at a discount store which improved our situation immensely. We had been told that we had a strict limit on the amount of luggage we could carry but we found out on the trip that the limit wasn't quite so strict. We never did have any laundry opportunities except for a couple of hotels that would clean shirts for about £2 each. We did some minimal laundry in the sink and bathtub. Next time we'll plan better.

Pub Crawling

In York, Evan managed to sneak away for a brief look at their train station. He was most impressed. This later led to an expedition in London to Victoria Station but I'm getting ahead of myself.

We had dinner this evening in the Yorkshire Lass Pub located on the bank of the river Nedd, just across from Mother Shipton's Cave in Knaresborough. Dinner included beef broth soup, roast beef and yorkshire pudding (like a round pot-pie-shaped egg-bread), cabbage & carrots, and dessert. It was quite good. During our trip, we all sampled various British brews and found them much more tasty than the typical American beers.

Mother Shipton was Britain's most famous prophetess. She lived about 500 years ago during the times of Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth. Find out more about her at http://www.demon.co.uk/holdenhurst/Mother_Shipton/

We spend the night in Bradford in the Bankfield Hotel, one of the Jarvis chain.

Day 13 (Aug. 27) - Bradford - Stratford-upon-Avon - Coventry
Our first stop this morning is in Stratford-upon-Avon to visit Shakespeare's birthplace, and then drive past Anne Hathaway's picturesque cottage. Later in Coventry we have a chance to visit the two Cathedrals, one ancient, one modern, before arriving at our hotel for dinner tonight. (FB D)

We left Bradford about 7:48am but encountered bad traffic jams near Manchester. We finally arrived at Barlston where we toured the Wedgewood China factory. I'm not much for breakables or collectibles, but I now have a new appreciation for just how much work goes into making these pieces. They aren't just stamped out in some machine. Each little decoration has to be molded, glued, fired, painted, and otherwise processed to produce the finished piece. No wonder

We left the Wedgewood shop about 11:50 and arrived in Stratford On Avon about an hour and a half later. We saw Anne Hathaway's cottage and had a group photo taken of our tour group. We toured Shakespeare's birthplace which is surrounded by gift shops (no surprise there!) It was a two-story house with small rooms and some interesting nooks and crannies. I couldn't help but wonder whether some valuable manuscript might still be hidden in some wall.

Next we spent a couple of hours on an optional tour of Warwick castle. It was great! It looks like my stereotypical image of a castle. A river around part of it and an (empty) moat around most of the rest. High solid walls made of large gray stone blocks. Crenellations along the top. The entry goes under a portcullis and thru about a 30' long passage into the inner courtyard. Enemies could be trapped in this passage and picked off with arrows, boiling oil, or some other nastiness.

Madame Tussade has created wax figures to populate some of the rooms and we saw tradesmen, warriors, and nobles in various aspects of their normal lifestyles. Evan had a hard time believing that some of them were really not alive. There were also a number of people in costume walking about acting as educators, local color, and guards all at the same time. I saw a jester, a warrior, and some musicians. It was very well done. We toured the dungeon, the torture chambers, work areas, and living quarters. I pooped out before I climbed the tower to see the ghost. Evan took the stairs to the top of the wall and got some great photos but said it was a hard climb even for him. The castle closed at 6pm and we stayed until closing. It was easily the most interesting castle we toured.

We spend the night in the Forte Hotel in Coventry. Next week we'll tell you about Coventry's Lady Godiva and our return to London.

Letter To The Editor,

I can't believe incumbent Clerk Kolen claims she's the victim of a "smear campaign". Her opponent, Elaine Joy, has run a clean campaign by simply offering documentation which proves Kolen hasn't been truthful. County records don't lie.

At the candidate forum, Kolen claimed she's "reduced costly overtime". But actual records show Kolen really spent thousands, and Joy's budget was zero. Kolen suddenly claimed her office is now open at noon. But try calling the Clerk's office at noon...it's closed!

Kolen tried to justify her week's stay at Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas, Nevada, (at county expense) as "required training". Kolen actually flew to Vegas while county employees got stuck with a 5% pay cut! Kolen's actions are even more questionable, because records also show Kolen didn't go public about this expensive trip as required. Because of budget cuts, a county board order required her to request pre-approval in a public meeting, which was never done.

Now Kolen wants us to believe there's really no conflict of interest with her husband as tax assessor? When Kolen quoted Oregon Law at the forum, she left out the most important parts. Is this person for real? Voters aren't stupid, they do know how to read. I've read it, and I've heard enough. I'm voting for Elaine Joy, and voting Kolen out.

Vote For Patrick R. Foley for District Attorney

To The Voters of Curry County

My name is Patrick R. Foley and I am running for the office of District Attorney. I would like your support in the general election on November 5, 1996. I have been in the private practice of law for twenty-one years. The last fifteen years I have been located in Curry County while practicing criminal law in many areas.

Tough on Drugs

I am seeking the office of District Attorney, the chief law enforcement officer in the county. I believe an active District Attorney can make a significant difference in the drug problem by aggressive prosecution of ALL drug related crimes whether they are committed by adults or juveniles. My professional friendship with other District Attorneys will assist me in the prosecution of major drug dealers in other jurisdictions to maximize the incarceration time and to keep them out of this county.

Juvenile Crime

A very real problem we have in Curry County is the lack of a Juvenile Detention Facility. Due to the high cost to Curry County for detaining our juveniles at the Del Norte County facility, juvenile offenders are often given less restrictive sentences. As District Attorney, I will assist the Juvenile Department in the acquisition of the necessary funding for a local detention facility.

By having our own facility, it will enable the Juvenile Court Judge to impose detention of the juvenile at an earlier time in the juvenile's criminal activity. This will prevent most juvenile offenders from any further criminal conduct.

Charging Decisions & Plea Bargains

Plea bargains, as they are conducted today, will be a thing of the past if I am elected as your District Attorney. Initially, I will make all charging decisions on all felony matters. In addition, I will create and produce a Charging Manual, during my first term of office to further my goal of Equal Prosecution. In other words, any conduct which warrants criminal sanctions will be evenly prosecuted at all times.

By instituting even handed charging, we must limit plea bargaining by making it the exception to the rule rather than the rule.

My experience as a major criminal trial attorney will allow the implementation of the No Plea Bargain rule.

Individual Rights

I am a life member of the National Rifle Association. I have a firm conviction that the federal and state constitutional guarantees are sacred. I pledge to work to prevent the violation of any constitutional guaranty by anyone. The crime victim, especially, needs someone to prevent further treading on their rights.

Letter to the Editor,

I am outraged at the allegations that are going around about Tamie Kaufman. She is not supported solely by developers. We have collected funds from over 120 different individuals. Republicans, Democrats, and Independents alike are supporting Tamie. As her Treasurer, I can assure you that I am overwhelmed at the amount of support we have received.

I have known Tamie for two years and have donated my time to her campaign because I find her dedicated and honest. Do not believe the lies and allegations many would have you believe, there's no doubt in my mind that Tamie is a good person with an independent mind and she is a free spirit.

I also know Tamie's father who has done some work for me and I am very happy with his work and I have found that he is nothing but all business.

However, Tamie is a very different person from her father. Tamie is more community oriented, and is independent of her father's business. After all, she did quit working for him this May. She has spent many hours on this campaign, because she sees a better Curry County in the future.

I think we should give her a chance to make us proud. Let's Choose Kaufman.

Thank you

Letter to the Editor,

With all of the negative campaigning going on with the election this year, it is with great pleasure to see that Tamie Kaufman has kept it clean. It shows the character that she will have when dealing with the problems facing the Curry County employees and bringing trust back between the county government and the public. She is not going to go on what somebody else says but rather go to the problem itself and deal with the true issues.

Tamie Kaufman is a very hard working and dedicated person who understands the problems of Curry County. She has the experience and great knowledge of budget problems and wants to make Curry County a better place to live. She is young enough and not set in her ways to listen with an open ear to everyone and make a very good decision on any issue. She owes no favors to anyone.

It's clear that the people want a change and I know that the best person for the job of Curry County Commission Position #2 is Tamie Kaufman. Please join us and vote for Tamie Kaufman.

Letter to the Editor,

The first time I met Ken Messerle was when he was a nine year old Coos County member in the Sumner-Catching Inlet 4-H Dairy Club led by Henry Van Calcar of Sumner. I was the Coos County 4-H agent from 1949 through 1956. That was over 46 years ago. I was impressed with young Ken Messerle then and I am even more impressed with his accomplishments since then.

I trust his 4-H training had a part in developing him into an outstanding citizen and leader. But I know that his parents Everett and Jo Messerle, and his interaction with other members of his family and others, combined with his work ethic, contributed most to the success that Ken has achieved.

Ken Messerle is a candidate to serve us as our State Representative. His experience as a school board member, port commissioner, planning commissioner,

Letter To The Editor,

Last week I received a mailer from Veral Tarno for State Senator campaign. As many of you know I served as District 47's State Representative from 1985 through 1993. My last session was during Veral's first term in the Oregon House.

Veral's campaign mailer stated that he served with "an open door approach" and that he "worked hard to be accessible." My experience with his office during the 1993 and 1995 sessions is exactly the opposite! His door is always closed because he and his lobbyist friends are smoking in his office in violation of Oregon State Law.

While his door is closed, his telephone is on his answering device through which he screens our phone calls, answering only the ones that he cares to and ignoring others including those from Coos County Commissioners.

If you want a "closed door approach" from your State Senator, vote for Veral Tarno. I'm voting for Brenda Brecke, she answers all her phone calls!

Letter To The Editor,

In this election year it is great to see how well our two-party system works together. At the Democratic Convention we saw speakers James and Sarah Brady. Wasn't he the press secretary for Republican Ronald Reagan?

Then there is President Bill Clinton's chief spin-doctor, Dick Morris, who just resigned in a sex scandal. Wasn't he the one who spent most of his career spin-doctoring for Republicans such as Jesse Helms?

Clinton's chief strategist, Democrat James Carville, is married to Republican George Bush's former chief strategist.

We've seen actor Kevin Costner chumming it up with Hillary Clinton. Didn't Tom Brokaw tell us Costner is a card-carrying Republican?

Did I hear someone say, "It's time for a change"?

Letter To The Editor,

We just wanted to take this opportunity to let the citizens of Curry County know what they have in store for themselves if they elect our father Lloyd Olds as their County Commissioner.

You will get a person who is 100% dedicated to our Country, not its politics, but to the concept of Freedom and Justice for all.

You will get a person who will eat, sleep, walk and talk as your representative. He never lets up on anything he is involved in.

You will get a person who understands your daily problems in life regardless of your occupation. Logger, fisherman, military or ex military, gas station attendant, business manager, etc.

You will get a person who cares and will listen to you.

You will get a person who is not afraid to tell you if he disagrees with you, but will join you in finding a mutual solution.

You will get a person who does not know the meaning of give up or quit.

You will get a person whose sense of humor is matched only by his sincerity.

Above all you will get a person who will treat you with the same respect he wants to receive, and will listen to you no matter how busy or tired he is.

If this is what you would like to see in a County Commissioner, then vote for our father, Lloyd Olds on November 5.

Brad Olds, Tammy McIntire
Rachel Olds, Sheri Olds

Letter To The Editor,

You've seen her blue and gold signs, "Martha Weaver-Britell For State Representative, District 48." And, maybe you think, "Nice, sturdy signs. Thoughtfully placed." You may also think, "But why should I vote for Martha?"

I am voting for Martha because I am sick and tired of being dictated to by the Good OLE' Boys' Special Interests.

I was born in Coquille. I live in the same rural community as Martha, and have known and worked with her. She never asks others to do what she herself does not do. Citizens believe in, volunteer for, and support Martha because she is up front and honest; she listens, learns, and works very hard. She is easily accessible and comfortable to be with. Martha is a respected leader who has earned this vote of confidence.

Whenever our community unites and does good things, you can be sure Martha is involved. See for yourself - check out your Voter's Pamphlet, Volume 2, Page 26.

Martha is our active citizen, volunteer, and leader who stands up for Family Values and our community. I am voting for Martha Weaver-Britell for State Representative because I know she can do for our District what she has done for our community. She is one-of-a-kind Candidate with bi-partisan support, and will speak for all citizens, not just represent one special interest.

Elect Lloyd H. Olds

For County Commissioner position #2

Hi Folks!

Just keeping you up to date on my campaign as County Commissioner. I want to thank everyone for your fantastic support, and state once again, "We can make a difference." Everyone who knows me personally, knows where I stand and what I believe in. I realize the vast majority of the Citizens in our County do not know me, so please let me share some of myself to you in this letter.

I have previously published a list of items I stand for in the newspaper, but I would like to list them once again for you.

1. Full County Representation- Every part of our County will be considered top priority.

2. Term Limits- No more lifetime Commissioners.

3. Elimination of Free Benefits for Commissioners- Commissioners should pay for their own retirement benefits, as if self employed. They should use personal vehicles to and from work.

4. Communication with Citizens- I will be available for everyone.

5. Budget Restraint- Spend only what we really need and cut the frills.

6. Leadership by Example- I will set the example and not expect others to tighten up while I live in excess spending.

7. No Hidden Agendas- I have no ulterior motives prompting me to be a County Commissioner. I have been dedicated to the Citizens of our Country, and County during my adult life. (20 years military service, and almost eight years as your Judge). I will do everything possible to bring mutual respect back to our County Government.

8. No axes to grind- No vendettas- No pet projects- I will do everything I can to make County Government serve the Citizens in the most efficient and professional way possible.

9. Honesty and Integrity- I have lived by my own code of ethics all my life. I have never desired riches or power, only to know in my heart, I did the best I could possibly do in every aspect of my life. I have always tried to be as good of an example to my children, and grandchildren, as my parents have been to me.

10. Mutual Respect to All- I treat everyone with respect, and expect to be treated with respect in return. That does not mean I'm a "Pushover", or "Easy", but that I will treat everyone the same without worrying about status, race, beliefs, etc.

I am not anti-growth, or pro-growth! Our County is bound to be affected by growth. I believe in growth controlled by common sense, and not the pocket book.

I have no intention of putting a stop to growth and expansion in Curry County. I refuse to be manipulated or used to approve something that may affect the County negatively in the future.

In closing, I Thank You in advance for your trust, and will put every effort in living up to that trust.

Thank You,

Lloyd H. Olds
