Fiddlers Fill Building By Evan Kramer

The Port Orford Community Building was packed to capacity on a rainy and windy Saturday night, March 15. Over 400 people squeezed in to listen to Hanneke Cassel and Ryan McKasson display their fiddle playing skills. The two national fiddle champions were accompanied by Ryan's sister Cali on keyboards while Hanneke's mother Dianne leant her guitar playing abilities to the evenings musical program. The stage was attractively decorated in designs appropriately done in St. Patrick's Day green and white with the help of a host of friends.

Cassel and McKasson took turns playing on some songs and joined their talents on others. Hanneke, who attends the Berklee College of Music in Boston played several songs she has written including "The Funk Bridge", "Ben's Nightmare" and "The Blossom". She wrote some of these at the Valley of the Moon fiddle camp in Scotland which she attended last summer. Although we thought it would be difficult to improve on last year's performance Hanneke has managed to improve technically we suspect because of her new interest in classical violin. We appreciate how fortunate we are to have such excellent talent from Port Orford.

McKasson, clad in his Scottish finery including a green kilt performed some songs written by James Scott Skinner, who we were informed was not only quite a fiddle player but something of a showman on stage. Ryan displayed his great sense of humor several times including a joke about pronouncing the words butter and better.

During the second half of the performance Hanneke stepped to the microphone and announced she was going to do something she had never done before on stage. She launched into the singing the song "Red is the Rose" to an appreciative audience. Another talent she displayed earlier in the performance was a dance inspired by "Riverdance"?

The musicians were rewarded with a well deserved standing ovation at the end of the performance. They then gave the over 400 people in attendance a rousing encore and the evening's performance ended with a second standing ovation.

Bravo and thanks for the show. Hope we see you back in Port Orford performing again next year or sooner.

A Visit to Cleveland by Valerie Jean Kramer

I just got back from a week visiting with my folks in Cleveland, Ohio. You know, the mistake on the lake; the place where the river catches fire; the place where even the founding father (Moses Cleaveland) didn't stay; the place where the mayor set his hair on fire with a welding torch while trying to be, "one of the guys"; the place where the mayor had to turn down a White House dinner because it conflicted with his wife's bowling night; the city that has had such well loved mayors as "Perk the jerk" and "Dennis the menace." That Cleveland.

Cleveland has changed a lot since I grew up there. Then it was a gritty industrial city. Now most of the steel mills, oil refineries, and other heavy industry has either shut down, moved on, or cleaned up. Terminal Tower is no longer a railroad station and no longer dominates the skyline. Municipal Stadium has been torn down but the Indians have a new ball park. A gigantic building that was formerly a plant to build tanks (as in treads, guns, and war) is now the exhibition center. While I was there, we went to the Sportsman's show and saw acres of boats, RV's, and outdoor equipment. At the same time a computer show was going on in another part of the building. A permanent ferris wheel pierces the roof in a glassed-in bubble giving a great view of the airport next door. For all its faults, Cleveland seems to be a growing, thriving place where lots of things are happening!

Hospice Volunteer of the Year.

Donna Smith of Port Orford was honored recently as Curry County Home Health & Hospice Volunteer of the Year. This award, presented here by Lou Berens, Volunteer Coordinator is based on nominations by the volunteers and staff. They nominate the person who deserves special recognition for going above and beyond the call to embody the Hospice philosophy of assisting patients and their families to meet the challenges of terminal illness in their own homes in their own ways.

The only person surprised by the award was Donna herself. She has not only helped families and patients in the Hospice setting, she is co-leader of the North Curry Bereavement Support Group which meets twice a month for those who have lost loved ones, has sold raffle tickets, worked in the County Fair booth, and single-handedly trimmed the Port Orford Light Up a Life Tree. Patients and their families appreciate Donna's flexible responsiveness to their needs and her tactful empathy. The staff are grateful for her cheerful enthusiasm, insight, and communication skills.

Donna also works tirelessly for the American Cancer Society Breast Health Network. She has organized the free weekly group which meets to offer and learn more about Therapeutic Touch, and is a member of Lightin' Bugs. She is an accomplished artist who donates her work to the causes she supports. Donna's award is a ceramic angel.

It occurs to the author that there is probably more than one angel in Port Orford now. An awful lot of people would agree. Thanks, Donna.

Oregon Spring Beach Cleanup

Mark your calendars! March 29 10am-1pm. Get out your heavy rubber gloves and join thousands of other volunteers as they participate in "The Great Oregon Spring Beach Cleanup".

There will be access point coordinators at Cape Blanco State Park, Battle Rock City Park, Ophir Rest Area, and Gold Beach on the South jetty. These are meeting sites for signing in, getting SOLV garbage bags and receiving safety tips.

This annual event gives citizens of the local area a chance to participate in enhancing the cleanliness of a beautiful asset, our beaches. Through the beach clean up we help provide cleaner, safer beaches for both Oregonians and the invaluable tourist who visit our beaches to enjoy. I am hoping that together we can make this years annual beach clean up a big success!

If you would like more information on this years "Spring Beach Cleanup", call Laura Rhodes at Humbug Mountain State Park (541) 332-6774 - Monday - Friday 8am to 4:30pm.

Recycle Act
 By Steve Greenwood

I would like to congratulate all recyclers in Curry County in working together to attain a 31% recovery rate for calendar year 1995. This rate far exceeds the 15% mark required of Curry County by the 1991 Recycling Act.

Residents of Curry County should be proud of the cooperative efforts of recycling collectors, recycling processors, Curry County staff, City staffs and all other recyclers/waste reducers in developing and implementing excellent recycling/waste reduction programs. Your efforts have helped Oregon attain a 34% statewide rate and have moved the state toward the 50% recovery rate targeted for 2000 by the 1991 Recycling Act.

In 1983, Oregon adopted the Opportunity to Recycle Act. It established the Solid Waste Management Hierarchy which continues to guide solid waste management today. The Hierarchy sets clear public policy that waste prevention, reuse, recycling and composting should be practiced first as waste management options before turning to incineration and disposal.

The State has progressed in recovering more of its waste. However, despite the fact that Oregonians recycle more material each year, the State will not reach its year 2000 50% recovery goal with current 1995 wasteshed (county) recovery rates. Materials with good resource value are still being disposed in significant amounts and Oregonians continue to generate more waste each year.

DEQ staff are committed to helping Oregon attain the 50% mark and to assist in efforts to improve and expand recycling programs and waste reduction efforts. During this summer's legislative session, the Department will recommend statutory

A young man was hauled into court for fighting. "Tell your side of the story," said the Judge.

"Well, I was in the phone booth talkin' to my girl when this guy wants to use the phone. Me and my girl had just talked for about ten minutes when he opened the door, grabs me by the neck and tosses me out of the booth."

"Then you got angry ?" asked the judge.

"No," the young man replied, "I really didn't get mad 'til he grabbed my gal by the neck and threw her out, too !"

Pinewood Derby Held

The Cub Scouts from Pack 98, Port Orford-Langlois, held their Pinewood Derby Saturday, March 15 at Driftwood School. Twenty-four Scouts participated in the races. The Scouts make their own cars from a standard kit which includes a block of pine, wheels, axles and numbers. The boys did an excellent job with their cars and there were many close races with several runoffs required to break ties. There was also a special division for adult family members of the Scouts which had eight entries.

Pack 98 wishes to thank the Awana Club, Keith Rowling and Chuck Lawson for allowing the Scouts to borrow their track, setting it up and helping run the races. Their "electric eye" finish line was critical to running fair races considering how close some of the were.

Melissa Weinblatt

Melissa Weinblatt, Pacific High School sophomore, was selected to attend the Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation (HOBY) seminar in Portland March 20th through 23rd. Buzzy Nielsen, PHS junior who attended the conference last year, returned to the conference this year as an honored alumni.

Weinblatt was one of approximately 200 other sophomores from Oregon who were selected based on their outstanding leadership potential as demonstrated by their school performance and involvement with community activities. During the conference, dynamic leaders from the fields of business, education, government, and the arts conducted programs on many aspects of our changing world and the challenges confronting future leaders. The program is designed to develop an awareness of present and future issues by actively involving seminar participants in discussions and informal debates. Students participated in a talent presentation, special awards banquet and had the opportunity to talk with speakers on a one-to-one basis in small groups.

All costs for students attending the HOBY seminar were paid by Oregon sponsors including corporations, business and community service organizations who support leadership education.

Buzzy is the son of Diane Nielsen of Langlois, and Melissa's parents are Georgia and William Weinblatt of Port Orford.

Elk River Watershed

The USDA Forest Service, Powers Ranger District will begin a revision of the Elk River Watershed Analysis to expand the original version with additional information. The revision will include new or updated information of the social, physical and biological processes within the Elk River watershed.

The information that comes from a watershed analysis provides the basis for future land management activities on Federal Lands, including monitoring and restoration programs. Watershed analysis is not a plan, but rather a process that gathers information that will be used for future planning and to help evaluate the results of past plans.

The process is intended to provide decision makers with the best available information with which to evaluate possible management activities within the watershed. The public is invited to help develop this analysis by sharing information that will make this a better analysis for us to use.

If you feel you have information that would be helpful in the Elk River Watershed Analysis Revision process, or would like a copy of the original watershed analysis, you are invited to contact: Max Yager, Elk River Revision Team Leader, Powers Ranger District, Highway 242, Powers, Oregon 97466 or telephone (541) 439-3011 or fax (541) 439-7704.

Letter to the Editor,

There has been so much controversy over a new ambulance service coming into our community to administer emergency care that I would like to inform you of what this service could mean to you and your loved ones. This is nothing against the service we have now - this is just an opportunity for us to be cared for the best way possible in that "golden hour."

Let me be the first to commend Port Orford Ambulance Service for the job they have been doing, however, now we have the opportunity to receive the highest level of care in the state. National Registry does not recognize Oregon E.M.T.

intermediates because of their substandard scope of practice. It does recognize E.M.T. basics and paramedics.

I am sure many of you have heard rumors about a certain paramedic service. I advise you to please investigate these rumors for yourself. When you do you will soon realize the expanded scope of practice and the higher level of care a paramedic is able to offer you and your loved ones.

If you would like to investigate further, please feel free to contact me anytime at 5300639. Leave a message and I will get back to you.

Sincerely,

Timothy Novotny

Belize

The Curry County study group that went to Belize will hold a public meeting on April 24, at 7pm in Port Orford at the Port Orford City Hall, Council Chambers. This date has been rescheduled from April 1st. The 10 members will present their perceptions of Belize's sustainable tourism efforts and how what they have learned applies to Curry County. The group went to study a functioning nature-based tourism economy in action. Programs included both experiencing the kind of nature-based tourism products offered in Belize and how they are offered to the public, meeting with government officials, business owners, tourist industry workers and conservationists. The following are some of the specific issues which were explored: marketing, delivering visitor experiences, coordinating with other businesses and industries in the community, creating public and private partnerships, meeting conservation goals and resolving resource management issues. All interested persons are encouraged to attend.

Race to the Future

"Race to the Future" is this year's Port Orford Jubilee theme. This theme was chosen to draw attention to the Jubilee's famous fish box derby; the jubilee pins will feature a fish box car driven by a fish. Everyone can join the fun by participating in the many events held the Fourth of July weekend in Port Orford. The parade especially welcomes all entrants.

Parade entries are due by July 1st in order for an entry to be judged. As in past years, the competition in some categories is tough. So, if you dream of a ribbon for your effort, it's time to get started on your entry. And, remember entries are judged by how well they keep to the Jubilee theme.

To be a part of the fun, pick up a Parade Entry form in Port Orford at the Chamber of Commerce office. For more information or to receive an entry form call Martha Weaver-Britell at 332-9775.

Samantha Is Okay

Here is the story regarding Samantha the dog. She belonged to James Mattas. He committed suicide in Port Orford on the afternoon of Sunday, March 17, having earlier in the day fired off one round at Pitches' Tavern and holding a gun to the head of owner Nancy O'Brian. Mattas killed himself inside his trailer. He owned a female Collie named Samantha. She was not shot or injured. She was taken to the Curry County Animal Shelter by the Sheriff. After Flo and Howard Lichtig were contacted by Mr. Mattas's brother, Robert, who lives in Illinois, they went to Gold Beach and got the dog out of the pound on Friday, March 21. She is staying with the Lichtigs until Robert Mattas can come and pick her up.

Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs)

In 1974 Congress created IRAs as a way of encouraging people to save toward their retirement. Any taxpayer who has "earned income" that is, income from a job, may participate. "Passive income" or income from rentals, interest or dividends is not eligible. For 1996 an individual may contribute up to $2,000. A couple may contribute up to $2,250 if only one spouse works but $4,000 if both spouses work. Now the good part; Some or all of this contribution is tax deductible, in addition the growth, interest or dividends will not be taxed until you retire. Next week; IRA Investment Alternatives.

The Committee To Elect Rocky Raccoon would like to thank not only the 300 people in the district who voted for Rocky, but also the 58% of the electorate who returned ballots who either could not or would not vote for Bill Oleson. ### Spring Gray Whale Migration

March 22 - 29 from 10am till 1pm Battle Rock City Park and Cape Blanco State Park will be staffed by volunteers to share their knowledge about the Gray whale migration. Twenty thousand gray whales pass within three miles of the Oregon Coast twice a year. During the Spring Migration, if the weather is good, you may see whales within a few hundred yards of coastal headlands. The Northern migration takes place in the early spring and the southern migration takes place in early December. The full round trip from Baja calving lagoons to the Bering Sea is 10,000 miles, the longest known for any mammal.

Humane Society

The South Coast Humane Society feels through the joint effort of many kind and compassionate people, we are making a difference. 1997 should prove to be a very exciting year for our members and the many volunteers who help make things happen. The acre of land donated to us by South Coast Lumber Co. Was approved by the County Planning Commission in January. Currently Buzz Hansen has commenced work on the blue prints for our new shelter. (With the aid of blue prints from Florence Humane Shelter.) Also plans are to lease a building for the purpose of a thrift store, which is needed to help support our shelter. As you probably can see, there is lots of work ahead to make all of the above a reality.

We are asking the communities for their support in helping us achieve these goals. We need in kind donations of services and materials, plus volunteers to assist with our many programs. Any concerns or questions about our programs should be directed to the following: Lyn Spikes - dog adoptions (541) 412-0325, Charm Anderson - cat adoptions (541) 469-2658, Linda Bitz - thrift store (541) 469-5008, Arlene Hambly - building/shelter (541) 469-0602. Calls concerning the county animal shelter should be directed to Ted Hawkinson, Animal Control Officer (541) 247-2345. Port Orford individuals interested in organizing a chapter of the S.C.H.S. or volunteering for any of our programs, please contact "Cat Conscious" (541) 332-9104
